

Chocolate

Don't chew chocolate.

Let it rest on your tongue and melt, thaw, and dissolve—a syrup seeping into saliva slowly sending signals to neurotransmitters on the dopamine highway a rush of pleasure!

—Ed Emerson